Each man's life represents a road toward himself,
an attempt at such a road,
the intimation of a path.

No man has ever been entirely and completely himself.
Yet each one strives to become that —
one in an awkward, the other in an intelligent way,
each as best he can.

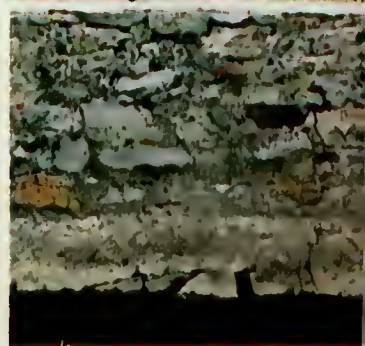

Each man carries the vestiges of his birth —
the slime and eggshells of his primeval past — with him to the end of his days.

Some never become human,
remaining frog, lizard and ant.
Some are human above the waist, fish below.
Each represents a gamble on the part of nature in creation of the human.

We all share the same origin, our mothers;
all of us come in at the same door.
But each of us — experiments of the depths —
strives toward his own destiny.

We can understand one another;
but each of us is able to interpret himself.
To himself alone.

Central Board

Central Board is the main governing body of Western Montana College. It is comprised of fourteen members. Except for the four class officers, the members are chosen by the student body in two general elections — one in the spring and one in the fall. Serving on the board are the president, vice-president, secretary, nine representatives-at-large, a business manager, and a social chairman. Central Board serves as the go-between for the students and the faculty.

The 1971-72 officers were Dan Gilman — president; Tom Willis — vice-president; and JoAnn Gygax — secretary. Winter Quarter Joan McDonald served as secretary. Other members of the board were Lola Anglin, Mary Lou Egan, Chuck Evans, Mark Shafer, Vicky Willis, Mike Miller, Jim Cox, Rick Borden, and Karin Rustvold. Craig Williams served as business manager and Dale Sprout was the social chairman. Dean Stish and Mr. Hickethier served as faculty advisors to the group.

ICC

The Inter Club Council consists of elected representatives from all campus organizations. The main objective of this council is to develop better communications among the numerous campus groups. ICC is headed by Central Board's vice-president. This year the office was held by Tom Willis. Members of ICC were Ann Gehring, Janet Hewitt, Jane McGimpsey, Linda Liddell, Pam Strupp, Susan Miller, Heleen Hildreth, Kelly Barrett, Gene Posivio, Mary Nelson, Patti Wehler, and Chuck Poland.

Homecoming Draws

Enthusiastic Crowds

Saturday's events began with the parade in which creativity was apparent in the various floats.

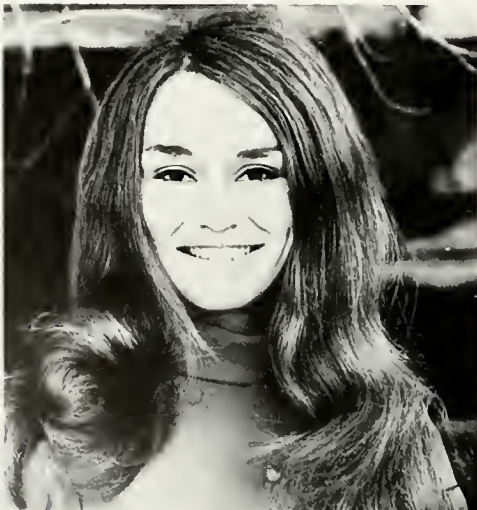

The day was cold but the Bulldogs still fought as hard as they could to win the football game that day. Unfortunately the opponent, Montana Tech, fought a little harder.

Iola Reigns As

Eleven charming young ladies vied for the position of reigning over Homecoming activities. Receiving the honor was Iola Anglin with Sandi Felton as runner-up. The eleven were: Iola Anglin, Circle K; Sandi Felton, Music Club; Sue Mackie, AWS; Bonnie Gould, Rodeo Club; Connie Else, I.A. Club; Elaine Totten, Freshman Class; Carol Dunbar, Newman Club; Karin Rustvold, Junior Class; Connie Huf- field, Sophomore Class; Polly Reinhart, Senior Class; and Eileen Jeller, "M" Club.

Tennessee Williams, the author of the "Glass Menagerie" is well known for his use of the hard-luck tale. This play is no exception. Amanda, trying to raise her children after her husband has deserted them, feels that the time has come for Laura to have gentlemen callers. Laura is a cripple who is completely obsessed with her glass animals and has come to accept the way of life she is living. Tom, after much nagging brings a friend home from the factory. But this friend is engaged to be married. The play ends where it began, in an alley in St. Louis. Now only Laura and her mother live in this run-down hotel; Tom is gone.

CAST

The Mother (Amanda)	Betty Barnes
Her Son (Tom)	Mike Miller
Her Daughter (Laura)	Lorna Gabel

MacBeth, the ill-fated noble, finds that his destiny is foreseen by the three Weird Sisters. Prophecy leads him to become the Thane of Glamis, Thane of Cawdor and finally the King of Scotland. With the prompting of his wife, MacBeth succeeds in securing his final title through murder.

King Duncan and MacBeth's true friend Banquo must be eliminated. Murder does not end here but continues with the merciless killing of Lady MacDuff and her daughter. Malcolm, the rightful heir to the throne, has fled, as well as his brother Donalbain, in fear of being accused of the murder of their father. Madness finally takes the life of Lady MacBeth as MacDuff, who has come to avenge the death of Duncan, takes the life of MacBeth.

Classes Are A Daily

Routine At Western

Blood-drawing, M Day And Spurs-M-Club Game

Continue To Show Spirit Of Western

The big circus begins with the parade of contestants. Moving along in the circus the contestants present themselves in evening gown competition. Leading the parade is Elaine Totten, followed in order by Judy Denny Maureen Sullivan, Sandy Felton, Donna Fouts, Cindy Smith and Maxine Hankins.

Talent competition is followed by swimsuit competition. And finally, the results. Pausing for a moment before the announcement of the results, the contestants take the time to present Sue Hardaway, co-chairman of the pageant with a red rose from each of them.

Announcement of the winner of the Talent Trophy comes in the form of the name Maureen Sullivan. Miss Congeniality, as chosen by her fellow contestants is awarded to Cindy Smith.

Finally the tenseness of the audience is felt as ring-leader, Glen Larum announces the final results. Third runner-up: Maxine Hankins. Second runner-up: Elaine Totten. First runner-up: Sandy Felton. And finally drawing the big circus to a climax and a close, Miss Western 1972: Maureen Sullivan.

The talent portion of the Miss Western Pageant is an important factor in deciding who will become the new Miss Western. This competition is worth 50% of the total evaluation of the contestants.

In portraying the ever-loved character of Huck from the American classic Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain, Judy Denny relates some of Huck's feelings before running away.

The accordian, an instrument well known in the old time beer parlors is brought to life again as Cindy Smith plays "The Village Tavern Polka."

An artist in many ways, Maxine Hankins presents one of her talents in the form of painting and sculpture. People make up the bulk of the subject matter brought forth in her work.

Maureen Sullivan portrays the growing insanity of a woman confined to her dark, empty cell in prison. Emotion-packed is one description of "The Button."

Performing to the rhythm of "Iron Butterfly" Elaine Totten exhibits her gymnastic skills on the uneven parallel bars.

Sandy Felton, combining her acting and singing skills brings forth some of the stamina which dwells within the soul of Molly Brown as she says "I Ain't Down Yet."

Donna Fouts presents the dramatic soliloquy of the ill-fated lover, Juliet, from the Shakespearean tragedy Romeo and Juliet.

WHAT IS A PROFESSOR?

He's a rare breed of animal, vegetable, and mineral, that's got something about sacrifice.

He could probably be making more money elsewhere and could be lots happier.

Yet for some reason, he's here now making you miserable.

Oh sure, some of them are sad, too — some of them are real sad.

But most of them are okay — real pals. Every now and then you get one that gives out blanket A's and goes drinking with the guys.

But more often than not, you end up with a guy that walks into the class the first day and says, "For tomorrow, read the first twenty chapters and be prepared for a test."

You are not an author, as you are not an artist, unless from your own heart you add to the treasures of art something which would not have existed if you had not been born.

Rodeo action is always fast and furious and Western's 1972 Rodeo was no different. Rodeo action (moving in a clockwise direction) began with the crowning of Miss WMC Rodeo Queen, Donna Fouts. Bull riding is the most popular rodeo riding event and the most dangerous, but Brent Johnson is willing to do his best. Wayne Else takes on one of the most exciting events as he competes in the steer wrestling event. Debbie Barrett quickly moves around the clover-leaf pattern of barrels during the barrel racing event. The man behind the scenes is the rodeo team coach, Don Walters.

A Success

Kelly Barrett competes in one of the riding events which has the least competition of all. John Pfister is trying his best to stay on top during the same event which Kelly is competing in — saddle bronc riding. Brent Johnson and Kelly take some time between events. Pete Burwell joins the other members of Western's team as he too takes part in the saddle bronc event. Donna Fouts, one of the three girls representing Western in the rodeo shows her skills in the goat tying event.

Bonnie Gould takes part in the breakaway roping event. This event is basically the same as the boys' calf roping event. Team members take time to discuss the day's activities. Tracy Grigg tries his skill at the calf roping event. Donna Fouts received a distinction during the year which was a first for any girl from Western. Donna was awarded the honor of All 'round Cowgirl at the EMC Rodeo.

The whole trade in the luxuries of life is brought into existence and supported by the requirements of the consumer.

WESTERN MONTANA COLLEGE BOOSTER CLUB

THE WMC Booster Club, founded in 1958, has contributed over $60,000 to the college. Through the help of the Booster Club and other such organizations over this period, Western's enrollment has more than doubled.

During the Booster Club's eleven years it has provided over 300 freshman scholarships to Western Montana College. Thirty-eight such scholarships ($7,600) were granted for the 1971-1972 academic year.

Recipients are selected primarily on their academic excellence and their professed desire to enter the teaching profession. Each recipient receives $200, divided over the three quarters, but high grade-point averages must be maintained to secure this aid.

Officers for the current year are: Max Nield, president; Dr. R. D. Romers, vice-president; Joe Lane, treasurer; Charles Stauffer, secretary.

As of December, 1971, the Booster Club had a membership of 110 which include:

You're Worth It

The $5,600,000 and more we pay in Montana each year would finance about 6,500 public school students. We help education in others ways, too, like scholarships, 4-H courses, and grants.

We think you're worth it.

It was the best of times;
It was the worst of
times;
It was the age of
wisdom;
It was the age of foolishness.

It was the epoch of belief;
It was the epoch of incredulity,

It was the season of light;
It was the season of darkness;

It was the spring of hope;
It was the winter of despair.
